Cpl. Martin was serving with 1st Bn R22R Battle Group and had only been deployed to Afghanistan three weeks before his death. He was on a foot patrol early Saturday afternoon in the vicinity of a major road construction project that NATO is pushing in the volatile district of Kandahar. Steve was killed when an IED detonated - he died two days before his 25th birthday, the 154th Canadian soldier killed in the Afghanistan war. It was his second tour in Afghanistan and he had also been deployed to Haiti earlier in 2010 as part of Canada's humanitarian earthquake effort. Cpl. Martin was from St-Cyrille-de-Wendover, near Drummondville, Quebec.
