Cpl Crooks was serving with the RCR Battle Group and had four days to go before being rotated home. He was killed with MCpl. Scott Vernelli and five other Canadians were wounded while on a dismounted patrol. The soldiers were killed/wounded by an improvised explosive device believed triggered by one of the men on foot patrol. The incident occurred in the Zhari District west of Kandahar City at about 0645 Kandahar time. A separate later attack killed 2 Canadian soldiers, Tpr Bouthillier and Tpr Hayes and wounded three other soldiers.
