In the Service of Peace

- Mother Carol was the National Silver (Memorial) Cross Mother for 2001
- Mark's mother would knit woollen dolls for her son to distribute to destitute children in the former Yugoslavia. To honour their son's memory, the Isfelds continue to this day to craft, ship and promote the delivery of the nicknamed "Izzy" dolls to Canadian soldiers who, in turn, give them to orphaned and vulnerable children in war-torn regions around the world.
- Carol and Brian Isfeld were both awarded the Meritorious Service Medal in 2006.
