

Private NATHAN LLOYD SMITH

Killed: 17 April, 2002
Kandahar, Afghanistan Friendly Fire

Date of Birth: 28 June, 1975
Place of Birth: Tatamagouche, Nova Scotia
Age: 26

Military Service: - Service Number T26 981 625
- 3 PPCLI
- Enlisted 24 September, 1998

Citations: - Dag Hammarskjöld Medal

Burial Information: - Ashes spread at Peggy's Cove, Nova Scotia

Family: - Spouse of Jodi Carter
- Son of Lloyd and Charlotte Lynn Smith

Other: - A plaque bearing the names of Sgt. Marc Leger, Cpl. Ainsworth Dyer, Pte. Richard Green and Pte. Nathan Smith lies on a floodlit memorial beside the Canadian headquarters at Kandahar Airfield, Afghanistan.

- Private Smith was commemorated February 2003 on the Rakkasan Memorial Wall at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.
- Private Smith's mother was the Canadian National Silver (Memorial) Cross Mother for 2003.
- Private Smith's father was presented with the Silver Cross by the Maple Grove Education Centre Memorial Club in Hebron, Nova Scotia, The cross is 65 centimetres long and made of sterling silver. Memorial Club members and Yarmouth Consolidate Memorial High School designed the cross and a local jeweller made it. Three maple leafs on the cross represent the other Canadian soldiers who were killed in the friendly-fire incident.