Tpr Bouthillier was serving with the RCR Battle Group and was killed with Tpr Corey Hayes when their vehicle struck an improvised explosive device. Three other Canadians were also wounded. The soldiers were killed/wounded by an improvised explosive device believed triggered by one of the men on foot patrol. The incident occurred in the Shah Wali Khot District northeast of Kandahar City at about 0845 Kandahar time. A separate earlier attack had killed 2 Canadian soldiers, MCpl Vernelli and Cpl Crooks and had wounded five other soldiers.
